PROPERTY DETAILS

This gorgeous ranch home offers main-level living at its finest! Featuring newer paint and carpet throughout, this pristine property is everything you've been looking for. The livable, open floor plan is an entertainer's dream and includes a chef's kitchen complete with stainless steel appliances, gas cooktop, and massive center island. The spacious master retreat features a spa-like master bathroom and huge closet. Secondary bedrooms include en-suite baths. The great room has soaring ceilings and sliding glass doors to easily access the covered back deck. The professionally landscaped backyard was created with convenience in mind and provides lux and low-maintenance living. Relax to the sound of the water feature or warm up next to the gas fire pit. The unfinished, garden level basement is a blank slate ready for your custom touch. Located in highly desirable Cherry Creek school district, this perfect property is just minutes away from Southland's entertainment district.
