PROPERTY DETAILS

If you want to get away from it all, you're likely looking for a mountain sanctuary perfectly positioned on 40 acres. Somewhere with a quintessential Colorado log home, with privacy & never-ending views. Somewhere with an open great room with a roaring fireplace. But somewhere that's also soaked in southern exposure so when it does snow, it melts quickly. Somewhere that beckons you to explore the acreage around it daily. Ideally, this spot would adjoin National Forest so your acreage feels like it goes on forever. Only then could you hike, or ride horses without bumping into anyone. You'd want a spot that allows you to soak in the views and wildlife from your expansive deck as you relax and breathe in that crisp, clean mountain air after you come in for the day. Of course, when it is time for necessities, you'll want quick access to a main highway, major shopping within an hour and only two stops to Denver International Airport. All furniture is negotiable!

The lower level offers an open great room, kitchen, bedroom en-suite plus an additional bedroom and bath. This is perfect for guests or has been used as a VRBO.
