PROPERTY DETAILS

This charming 1949 traditional cottage has instant curb appeal and is in the hot and trendy Berkeley neighborhood. The home offers central air, 2 bedrooms, full bath and an updated kitchen with gas range, maple cabinetry, concrete counters and granite tile backsplash. Light and airy, original hardwood floors throughout, maple wood trim, upgraded doors and windows with an open living room and a kitchen nook. This home sits on a huge 6650 sq ft lot, newly landscaped and updated backyard with new fencing. Ample parking with large 1 car garage, with long driveway and trellis carport, as well as alley parking spots. Newer furnace, water heater, new paint, and roof is 2 years old. Washer/Dryer and safe included. Great area with easy freeway access, close proximity to Tennyson Street, and Regis University offering a hip vibe, ample shopping, and restaurants. Move-In or Re-Imagine – a delightfully inviting opportunity! No letters.
