PROPERTY DETAILS

Looking for the perfect mountain view, look no further! Long's Peak will stun you from several windows throughout the home, as well as from the covered deck off the master suite and living room. So many outdoor living options as well as expansive interior space make this three-bedroom, two-bathroom home in the coveted Alford Lake neighborhood an extraordinary place to call home! The main-level master suite won't disappoint as it boasts private access to the backyard deck, a five-piece bathroom and large, walk-in closet. Additionally, the upstairs houses a ½ bath, laundry room and spacious kitchen that opens to an eat-in space, large family room and formal dining room. Take the elegant, rod iron stairway down to the full, walkout basement which houses two bedrooms, a full bath with dual vanities and an expansive living area with a fireplace as well as a storage room. From the basement you can reach the beautifully manicured backyard, covered patio and enjoy your west facing views. Notice additional details such as the oak flooring, tray + cathedral ceilings, art niches, accent walls, and fully equipped appliance package.
