PROPERTY DETAILS

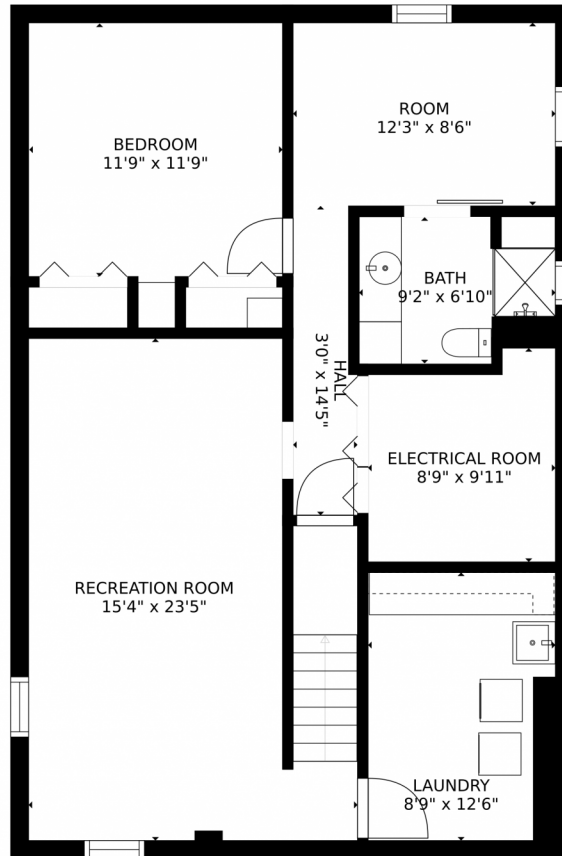

This Virginia Village classic mid-century brick bungalow has it all; beautifully updated kitchen with lots of counter space, cherry cabinets, SS appliances, double ovens, and lots of natural light make it the perfect place to cook for your family and friends. The main floor living space features hardwood floors, a big bay window making it bright and cheery. An open dining space, two bedrooms, a light, bright office space, an updated full bath complete the main level. The finished basement with high ceilings doubles the square footage and adds a second large living space, perfect for movies or a game room, there is a main bedroom suite with egress window, large main bathroom with walk in shower, granite counter, cherry cabinets, and lots of storage space. The big backyard faces east and has a covered patio that's perfect for morning coffee or relaxing in the evening, there is a firepit, and garden area just waiting for you to plant your veggies! The oversized detached garage has a large workbench and plenty of storage for all of your outdoor gear. Plenty of extra parking in the long driveway for all of your guests. You will be on a nice quiet street, and just a quick walk to the Colorado Station light rail, walking over the I-25 pedestrian bridge, where you'll not only have access to jump on the train to downtown, but easy access to Junction Food & Drink food hall, Dave & Busters, and the Regal UA Colorado Center & IMAX movie theatre, yes life as we knew it is coming back! You will also be central to plenty of shopping, restaurants, and all that Denver has to offer! Just a short walk to the public library, neighborhood schools, parks, and the Cherry Creek trail; easy access to light rail, I-25, DTC and Downtown. Get in here before it's gone!!
