PROPERTY DETAILS

Investment opportunity rarely knocks these days so don't miss this Aurora gem in the desirable Meadowood Community! Whether you are handy and looking for a home to fix up for yourself or desire a rental property this one is for you. This traditional tri-level layout offers a spacious living room as soon as you enter the home. Quietly nestled at the back of the home you will find the entertainment area gently transitioning from the kitchen into the dining area and family room. The massive owner's suite is found upstairs taking the size of two standard-sized bedrooms making for a lovely nursery or seating area, completed by a private deck overlooking the backyard. On the lower level of the home are two additional bedrooms along with a bathroom and a laundry closet. You will love living in the Meadowood Community with many large parks and open spaces just minutes away or within walking distance including Olympic Park and Wheel Park where you can watch a softball game or enjoy the skate park for hours of entertainment. The Meadowood Park stretches the entire length of the community with miles of walking trails and the Meadowood Rec Center offers many classes and even pre-school services through the City of Aurora. All conveniences are just minutes away as well including King Soopers at the Buckley Square shopping center along with Old Chicago, Ace Hardware, and even a Dutch Brothers coffee.
