PROPERTY DETAILS

The amazing location and views come with a bonus – which include a beautiful home with a main floor master suite bedroom on just over an acre of land in beautiful Evergreen. From the snowy mountain peaks to the distant white tented concourse of Denver International Airport, you'll never tire of watching the weather come in and roll out on to the plains. Enjoy the photo tour and you'll see why this is a special home. You'll love the open living room with a fireplace and the perfect layout that accommodates mountain living, entertaining and working. Imagine sitting in your hot tub enjoying the peaceful mountain life with views to amaze. Some less obvious but very important features include the newer roof 2019, some newer windows throughout the home and the extensive forest mitigation, very functional Greenhouse ready for your fruits and vegetables. Septic system is sized for 8 people/4 bedrooms. Sellers will make the home available for showings Thursday August 5th through Thursday August 12th. Schedule your showing soon – you'll be glad you did.
