PROPERTY DETAILS

Truly a pride to own a unique property in the beautiful historic town of Buffalo Creek. An unbelievable property you must see! This amazing fully furnished turn-key home has been very well loved and cared for. Sitting on 1.51 acres of land, the original home was built in 1890 with all the old-world charm, but it has been fully updated/remodeled so you can live comfortably year-round. The caboose offers plenty of storage space, an additional 6 beds and a ¼ bath which makes it a great guest house. This home is minutes to Buffalo Creek mountain biking trails, the Colorado Trail, fly fishing in the North Fork of South Platte River, and thousands of acres in the Pike National Forest. It is close to the Zoka's Restaurant & Bar, the Pine Public Library, Greens Mercantile which was built in 1898 that houses the Buffalo Creek Post Office, general Store, and also sells gasoline. The home is conveniently located 25 minutes from Conifer, 1 hour to downtown Denver, and 90 minutes to several
