PROPERTY DETAILS

A true "one of a kind" home in Crystal Hills! This move in ready, one level living home sits above Red Rock Canyon with breathtaking views from the front and back of the home. Enter the home from the front porch with adjoining waterfall and pond, into the spacious living room with original hardwood floors, grand gas fireplace and walk out to the private outdoor space. The living room flows to the formal dining area as well as the gourmet kitchen and open family room. The kitchen features gorgeous granite counters, copper farm sink and a hand crafted copper hood over the induction range. You'll love the kitchen eating area with views of Pikes Peak and the awesome pantry with built in shelving and cute sliding doors. Off the kitchen is a rec room that will blow you away! It hosts a full sized bar with back bar, a massive moss rock wood burning fireplace, pool table and so much more! Do you like to entertain friends and family? Can you imagine watching sports on TV, bellying up to the bar, playing a game of pool or spinning your partner on the dance floor with a raging fire in the fireplace, well this is the room for you! The family room has a wall of windows with jaw-dropping views, a cozy gas fireplace and custom wood ceiling with unique skylights. Off the family room is a huge 30x33 foot garage/shop with a ton of storage and walk out to a spectacular private composite deck with city, canyon and mountain views.
