PROPERTY DETAILS

This "rocky mountain high" property is everything you could want from mountain living. Truly a hidden gem. A peaceful and serene location, the only visible neighbors have four legs, tails, or colorful wings.

Decide for yourself if this home feels like a Swiss Chalet or an Alpine Retreat, has been in the same ownership for the past 25-years. Elevated on nearly 7-acres with wooded south-west exposure. Providing you with both passive sunlight, views for miles, and tranquil seclusion.

Located in the popular Richmond Hill subdivision, you're only a few minutes from grocery stores, gas stations, and less than an hour from Downtown Denver and the Denver Tech Center.

The seller has already purchased another home and has prioritized a quick sale over getting every last penny.
